the book does not contain the opinions of the author nor quotations from other writers but is based solely on the scriptures chapter and verse being given for every statement the book is timely in these days of apostasy and denial of the faith from the foreword the reverend clarence larkin was one of the most widely influential christian fundamentalists of the early twentieth century and his writings remain key to appreciating the conservative religious thought that today enjoys widespread popularity this 1920 work outlines the fundamental doctrines of christianity as revealed by the bible from the mystery of godliness to election and free will numerous charts and illustrations explain the five great world wide kingdoms the threefold nature of man the satanic trinity and more also available from cosimo classics larkin s the spirit world the second coming of christ and the book of revelation american baptist pastor and author clarence larkin 1850 1924 was born in pennsylvania and later set up his ministry there he wrote extensively and popularly on a wide range of biblical and theological matters crisis breakdown rejuvenation this is the territory of poetry that rudman takes readers into with this set of essays constructed as a series of character studies the essays are rooted in autobiographical material with biographical counterpoints tying the poets distinctly to places even as they are placed however they are displaced rudman s subjects from d h lawrence to czeslaw milosz to t s eliot are almost all exiles either geographically or within themselves this exile spins anger into energy transmuting emotion into imagination the same way that passaic falls known to william carlos williams turns water into power the mosaic style of the essays touches on nerve after nerve avoiding the snags of academic jargon to ease towards an illuminating truth about the artists shifting work and worlds some of the samuels beckett and fuller were able to navigate these shifts while others coleridge and johnson are shown to be less able to transmute their energy into motion here are 25 000 quotations drawn from the history politics literature religions science and popular culture of the world ranging from the earliest chinese sages through shakespeare to the present day this is the rev clarence larkin s guide to the book of revelation larkin who published several books about biblical studies in the 1910s and 20s was a dispensationalist one of the threads of modern evangelical christianity the predecessor of larkin is j n darby the founder of dispensationalism and among his many successors are hal lindsay and the left behind books unlike more recent authors however larkin does not make any claims to know when or exactly how the prophecies will unfold rather he takes us on a grand tour of the apocalypse of st john and guides us through its images symbols and poetry larkin sorts out what could be a reference to an actual event or person without attempting any particular association and what is pure symbolism larkin uses bold type extensively for emphasis as well as some superb visual aids in the form of intricate charts and maps contrasted with other prophetic books such as nostradamus and the sibylline oracles revelation has a consistent narrative with a beginning middle and end it is also one of the essential sacred texts and required reading for anyone interested in religion this book will be a welcome reference for anyone studying or trying to explain revelation whether or not they are dispensationalists those days was chosen for my book title because it describes in vivid detail what happens during the days of those left here on earth when the church has been taken to heaven it will be 2 520 days of god s increasing wrath poured out on man such as has not been since the beginning of creation and unless the lord had shortened those days no flesh would be saved mark 13 19 20 there are only two roads one leads to heaven and one leads to hell this is a spiritual fact without change or compromise there is no middle road and no chance to sit on the fence there are numerous false religions operating in the world today falsely broadcasting themselves as truth or as god s truth for that matter these religions may on the contrary be the foundation of lifelong poverty family breakdown mental derangement physical illness or varying manifestations of bizarre behavior in the lives of people these individuals have either turned their back on the true god completely or by their actions have allowed some of these pagan and false religious practises to creep into there every day lives by clinging to these pagan traditions we inadvertently give satan a foothold in our lives in these books these false religions have been measured up against the word wisdom and knowledge of god the word of god says that his word is like fire and is a hammer that breaks rocks into pieces
