gratian the theologian shows how one of the best known canonists of the medieval period was also an accomplished theologian well into the twelfth century compilations of church law often dealt with theological issues gratian's concordia discordantium canonum or decretum which was originally compiled around 1140 was no exception and so wei claims in this provocative book the decretum is the fundamental canon law work of the twelfth century which served as both the standard textbook of canon law in the medieval schools and an authoritative law book in ecclesiastical and secular courts yet theology features prominently throughout the decretum both for its own sake and for its connection to canon law and canonistic jurisprudence the short but fiery career of the famous jurist lodovico pontano 1439 led from the universities of bologna florence rome and siena the roman curia and the court of alfonso v of aragón to the council of basel where he became rapidly one of the major conciliarist leaders and died at the age of only 30 years of the plague pontano s biography and the sequential analysis of his largely unedited works shows how a man of learning managed to present his legal skills later enhanced by persuasive theological arguments as an expertise indispensable for government and to make himself so essential that he could regularly afford to break his contracts the first edition of ten important tracts and speeches completes the work includes entries for maps and atlases
