excerpt from the church hymnal revised to conform to the hymnal of the protestant episcopal church in the united states of america there can be little doubt that the most important act of legislation of the last general convention was that which gave to the church a new hymnal whether the time had fully come for compiling such a hymnal as if adopted the church would probably use for a score of years and whether the hymnal adopted was the best that could be compiled even at the present time are questions upon which there is and reasonably a wide difference of opinion but without question there was need of some action toward uniformity and there are few persons in the church who will not be grateful both to the members of the hymnal committee for their faithful labours and to the convention for giving us the hymnal even with its imperfections we should bear
